

RCMP

- Want to talk about intel gaps that we spoke about. We have a combined intelligence group. CSIS, RCCMP, OPP and other local police assets. Also have people from federal policing side. Also have ideologically motivated criminal intel group at national headquarters. They have focused their attention on activities related to the convoy.
- They look at this from both international and national spheres.
- Have had good discussions s.38 s.38
- s.38
- Also helpful for close protection stance and any threats to national security. But there are gaps
- s.38
- There is no significant update from yesterday. Numbers are generally holding at levels through the week. Expecting an influx through weekend
- On resources almost 300 members were made available, but OPS can't use all of them today 47 on duty, 51 on readiness.
- Deployed public order unit to Windsor.
- Last night some better barriers were set up to better contain vehicles.
- s.38
- The plan is now to go on Saturday in coordination with Toronto
- No injunction yet
- There is one lane open in each direction and work for more negotiations later today
- Counter protest still planning to take place today but trying to finalize locations
- Premier Ford has declared a state of emergency increasing penalties for blockading critical infrastructure.
- Plan is for enforcement tomorrow unless there is a significant breakthrough in negotiation or if situation changes
- Coutts POE still blocked. Still trying to assess dynamics of the groups
- Potential to close Coutts POE as there are report
- s.38
- Towing capacity has been exceeded and Request for CAF s.38 is pending.
- s.37
- A message from SAA will be sent.
- Not familiar with closure of legislatures in NS or NB
- In Emerson, blockade is in place will allow CBSA employees and livestock through as well as passenger vehicles.
- 20+ events planned throughout BC over the next week. Need to keep an eye not just on Pac highway but at all POEs.
- Continue to ensure that folks who are participating are entered into CPIC

s.39

Marco

- s.38

Lucki

- s.38

CBSA

- Ongoing protests in Sault Ste Marie, Sarnia and Pac Highway.
- Sarnia is still handling overflow from Windsor and wait times are manageable
- Several other unconfirmed POE protests in QC, NB and BC and working with local PoJ to ensure security

CSIS

s.38

s.

s.39

Solicitor-Client Priv.

s.39

s.38

s.38

